Bengal DCL Seeks Legal Manager in Kolkata to Oversee Land Deals and Property Disputes

Published: 9 November 2026

KOLKATA - Bengal DCL Housing Development Company Limited is looking to hire a Legal Manager or Senior Manager to oversee land and property matters for its real estate projects. The Kolkata-based role offers an annual CTC of Rs. 5-6 lakh and requires a BA LLB degree and at least seven years of relevant experience.

Land acquisition and title verification are central to the role. The new hire will review ownership records, check for encumbrances and pending disputes, and oversee property registration. The position also involves advising management on real estate regulations and coordinating with external lawyers and government authorities on compliance and litigation.

Bengal DCL was established as a joint enterprise of the West Bengal Housing Board and DC Properties Limited. The developer has built nearly 1,500 residential units across West Bengal.
